	)

The Court hereby rescinds its Order of September 28, 2006, removing the requirement that defendant Marx submit to a curfew as directed by the pretrial services office. The curfew requirement will remain in effect until further order of the Court.

Notwithstanding the present Order, defendant Marx shall not be subject to a curfew on Saturday, September 30, 2006, since the parties have agreed to this modification.

In all other respects, defendant Marx's conditions shall remain unchanged pending further order of the Court.

DATED: September 29, 2006
